

Solar Statement

Our goals include encouraging stakeholders to incorporate solar PV systems into their development processes, as well as streamlining the permit process and zoning requirements to help make the proposed use and installation of solar PV systems less burdensome for homeowners, developers, and those interested in participating in alternative energy resource growth and development.